ORDER

This matter is before the court on the defendant's Motion to Continue Trial [40]. The government has indicated to the court they do not oppose the motion. Counsel needs to discuss with client discovery, options and plea negotiations. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [40] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for May 28, 2019 is continued to July 15, 2019.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and July 15, 2019, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: May 23, 2019.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge
